

UCCP SABBATICAL REFLECTION AND RESOURCES

We would like to thank and honor those who came to UCCP and shared all that they do for our community and how we can help contribute to the meaningful and powerful work that they do.

Elece Hempel, Executive Director of Petaluma People Services Center. PPSC is dedicated to improving the social and economic health of our community by providing programs that strengthen the dignity and self-sufficiency of the individual.

Petaluma People Services Center website: <https://petalumapeople.org/>

John Crowley, founder of Aqus Cafe and Aqus Community Foundation. He is also a key co-founder of Petaluma's groundbreaking Cool Petaluma initiative, dedicated to achieving carbon neutrality by 2030.

Aqus Cafe + Aqus Community Foundation: <https://aqus.com/>

Cool Petaluma: <https://www.coolpetaluma.org/>

Mary-Frances Walsh, Executive Director of NAMI Sonoma County, the local chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness. Most often referred to as “NAMI,” the organization’s affiliates provide education and support for families and individuals affected by mental illness in over 600 communities across the U.S.

NAMI website: <https://namisonomacounty.org/>

Lynne Moquete, the Executive Director of Una Vida, an organization that feeds, clothes and grows for our community.

Una Vida’s website: <https://www.una-vida.org/>

Faith Ross, one of the co-founders of Petaluma Blacks for Community Development. PBCD’s primary goal is to share Black History and Culture with the community.

Petaluma Blacks for Community Development website: <https://pbcd4us.com/>